

Julianna Strasser

Realtor Associate® RS-73470

Julianna Strasser, a highly accomplished realtor, stands out as one of the industry's top producers. She is originally from Sydney Australia, the youngest of 3 girls in her family. Her remarkable success can be attributed not only to her exceptional skills and expertise in real estate but also to the solid foundation laid by her upbringing where strong values and an unwavering work ethic were instilled in her from an early age.

Born and raised by a loving family of physicians, Julianna was taught the importance of compassion, integrity and hard work. Julianna embodies these values in her approach to real estate. Her parents, both respected physicians, have instilled in her the value of care for others and relentless pursuit of excellence. Her ability to exceed clients' expectations stem from her upbringing and her own innate talents.

Julianna came to the Island of Hawaii over two decades ago, she married the son of the Austrian Council General in the year 2000, and shared a wonderful son together, who graduated from Iolani School.

Her real estate journey began with a passion of helping others, leveraging her robust market knowledge and negotiation skills to consistently deliver beyond client expectations. Her affiliation with a leading locally owned real estate company and her global connections have enabled her to maintain stellar sales record.

Julianna's commitment to excellence is evident from her slew of awards, including the Diamond Society Award and Salesperson of the Year in 2023.

Described by clients as dedicated, honest, professional, Julianna is celebrated for her exceptional client service, and has built a diverse and loyal client base. For those looking for a realtor who combines professionalism with a personal touch, Julianna Strasser is the exemplary choice.
