Thank you.
Yes, you! Those two words best describe the last four years at Wai Pacific.

As the world around us accelerates, you (and our ability to serve you) is all that really matters to our business.

To that end, we've brought on two key associates to expand our capabilities:

Yuko Uehana, a long-time Hawaii agent and native Japanese speaker – and Justin Bugado, a Big Island-born marketing phenom.

Whether we're assisting you in English, Mandarin, or Japanese - each project you entrust us with can mean the world to you - and we pledge to never forget that.

With gratitude,

-Nate Gaddis | Wai Pacific
