

John B. Guard IV

REALTOR (RB-18262)

John B. Guard IV offers a rare blend of legacy, discretion, and deep market expertise as a Realtor Broker in Hawai'i real estate. A descendant of Hawaiian royalty, Parker Ranch lineage, and the original missionaries who founded the Chiefs' Children's School under Kamehameha III, Guard's heritage is deeply rooted in the cultural and historical fabric of the islands.

This prestigious background, combined with decades of leadership, business success, philanthropy, and Christian values, has shaped a principled and results-driven approach to real estate. For nearly 30 years, Guard has earned a reputation as Maui's leading authority on large Upcountry and Central Maui acreage, high end properties—serving as a trusted Realtor, investor, and consultant to high-net-worth clients seeking privacy, legacy holdings, and meaningful investments.

Guard is known for his loyalty, discretion, and ability to curate best-case outcomes. He consistently prioritizes his clients' long-term goals while delivering insight-driven strategies with integrity and tenacity. His relationships are built on trust. His knowledge of Hawai'i's unique land history and market dynamics makes him a valued resource for sophisticated investors and families establishing generational homes.

Guided by Hawaiian values and a commitment to preserving the islands' resources and lifestyle, Guard combines traditional stewardship with a forward-thinking approach to land use and investment. His work supports not only exclusive real estate acquisitions but also the broader vision of protecting and enhancing Hawai'i for future generations.
