Ashley Wasson was studying to become a paralegal when she discovered real estate at just twenty years old. She went all in — and she's been a full-time agent ever since. Originally from New Hampshire and Massachusetts, she moved to Oahu at twenty years old and built a career and a life she loves on these islands.

More than fifteen years later, Ashley ranks in the top 2% at eXp Realty, one of the largest independent brokerages in the world, with a global network of more than 83,000 agents across 29 countries. A fierce negotiator with a deep network, she leverages that reach to earn her clients every possible advantage — because no matter the price range, everyone deserves a luxury experience.

What sets Ashley apart isn't just production; it's trust. Her business is entirely repeat and referral, a reflection of the relationships she nurtures long after closing. She's also a certified Mentor and co-chairs her brokerage's Agent Advisory Council for the state of Hawaii, investing in the next generation of agents.

Above all, Ashley is a dedicated mom who lives for her daughter — and she brings that same heart to her clients. "I have the deepest gratitude and appreciation for my clients and friends," she says. "There is no success without them."
