

Karen L. Agudong

REALTOR-BROKER
CRB, SFR, SRS, e-PRO®, ABR®
RB-17447

For nearly three decades, Karen Agudong has helped buyers and sellers navigate their real estate journeys on Kaua'i. A graduate of the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa and a longtime Kaua'i resident, she is known for her market knowledge, strong work ethic, and genuine care for the clients she assists. Her leadership includes serving as Past President of the Kaua'i Board of REALTORS®, along with receiving past honors such as REALTOR® Associate of the Year and Best of Kaua'i.

Karen believes real estate is about more than buying and selling property—it's about helping people through important life transitions and being someone they can trust and count on along the way. She takes pride in building lasting relationships and providing personalized guidance throughout the process.

Living and working on Kaua'i is a blessing she never takes for granted. She feels honored to help her clients achieve their real estate goals in the community she loves. Karen is deeply grateful for the trust her clients place in her and humbled to be recognized among Hawai'i's top real estate professionals.
