

Hawaii LUX Homes

RS-76286

Known for their thoughtful approach and elevated client experience, Hawaii LUX Homes has become a trusted name in Hawaii real estate under the leadership of founder and team lead Sherine Duncan.

The Hawaii LUX team brings together a group of dedicated professionals who share a passion for serving clients with integrity, thoughtful guidance, and a deep appreciation for the communities they call home.

With an elevated marketing approach, strong local knowledge, and personalized service, the team works across the islands, helping buyers, sellers, and investors navigate every stage of the real estate journey with confidence. From first homes to legacy properties, Hawaii LUX Homes is committed to delivering a seamless, strategic, and supportive experience for every client.

Whether preparing a home with curated staging, showcasing properties through thoughtful marketing, or helping clients navigate major life transitions, every opportunity is approached with care and intention.

Under Sherine's leadership, Hawaii LUX Homes has continued to grow while remaining grounded in the values that matter most: connection, community, and service. At the heart of everything they do is a simple mission — helping clients find their happy place.
